The Originator of Mormonism.

A Vermont correspondent of the N. Y. Evening Post claims for Middlebury, in that State, the infancy of having originated Mormonism. Or rather claims for one Wood, who lived in Middlebury, this infancy, for the inhabitants generally seem to have regarded the abortion with becoming disgust. Wood is represented as a proud, headstrong, power-loving man, too good in his own estimation probably, but really too bad, to be tolerated in the Christian church, of which he was originally a member. Being cast out of the church the devil took him up, and set him to work making a system of religion more to his taste than Christianity. Wood set up for a prophet, drew around him followers as wicked as himself and weak enough to be deluded by his pretensions, and gradually evolved the essential elements of Mormonism, which Joe Smith got hold of, and tried to dignify as a new revelation to himself.

Identified with this new delusion was a considerable amount of downright knavery. For a while Wood ruled his dupes by his prophetic pretensions, one Winchell, an expert counterfeiter, and a fugitive from justice, ruled Wood, and made all his disciples and others contribute to his benefit. He was particularly strong in the money-builing, witch-hazel line, and set people to digging in various directions for hid treasure, which they never found, though Winchell got well paid for his knavery. Joe Smith was one of Wood and Winchell's disciples, and while with them learned the trade of his masters so well that he was ultimately able to set up for himself the signal infancy of being the father of Mormonism, though really Wood was its discoverer or inventor.

THE FRANKLIN COUNTY UNION AGRICULTURAL SOCIETY will hold its Tenth Annual Fair on the Fair Ground in Richford, Wednesday and Thursday, September 23d and 24th. O. L. Kelton, of Montgomery, is President, and Dr. J. H. Hamilton, of Richford, is Secretary of the Society. The address will be delivered on the second day, by Hon. Geo. W. Hendee of Morrisville. A new and attractive feature in the fair will be the awarding of premiums to the best lady riders. Other additions will also be made to the list of premiums, and the rules and regulations have been changed in some respects. Trotting and running races will also be introduced, and probably a foot race, bag race, &c., all of which—though hardly a legitimate part of agricultural fairs—help to bring in the fractional currency, and thus make our fairs a financial success. A notice has been going the rounds of several of our State exchanges that this fair would be held on the 9th and 10th of September. This is a mistake. The society voted to hold the fair on the 16th and 17th of that month, but, as the Sheldon Fair will be held on the same days, it has been decided to hold this fair on the 23d and 24th.—Richford Sentinel.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS, the St. Albans Bank, a corporation, duly incorporated by the Legislature of the State of Vermont, located and doing business at St. Albans, in the county of Franklin, has made application to me, requesting me to issue a proclamation designating some day for the termination of the existence of said corporation.

And whereas, it has been made to appear to me that two-thirds of the legal votes of the stockholders of said corporation were given in favor of said application.

Now, therefore, I, Paul Dillingham, Governor of the State of Vermont, in conformity with said application, and the provisions of section eighty-six and eighty-seven of chapter eighty-nine of the General Statutes of Vermont, do hereby issue my proclamation, and declare that on the twenty-fifth day of March, A. D. 1868, the said corporation shall cease to exist as fully and with the same effect as if said charter expired by the limitation thereof.

In witness whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the seal of the State of Vermont to be hereunto affixed, in Executive Chambers at Waterbury, this 23rd day of September, A. D. 1867, and of the independence of the United States the 1st.
